Bidvest

‘Connecting the dots’

This year’s theme of ‘connecting the dots’ demonstrates how the Bidvest Group integrates its diverse operations, services, and values to create a cohesive and impactful business model. Bidvest operates in a wide range of sectors – from services like facilities management, hygiene and security, among many others, to trading, product distribution, automotive, and freight services. ‘Connecting the dots’ symbolises how these seemingly separate divisions are strategically aligned to support each other, creating synergies and shared value across the Group. The idiom also implies critical thinking and insight – understanding how different elements relate to form a coherent whole. Bidvest’s sustainability strategy emphasises stakeholder entrepreneurship, ESG commitments, and inclusive growth. ‘Connecting the dots’ also aligns closely to the Group’s business success with social and environmental responsibility – ensuring that every part of the business contributes to long-term value creation for its numerous stakeholders. Bidvest places a strong emphasis on people, decentralised governance, and partnerships, and ‘connecting the dots’ refers to building relationships – internally among teams and externally with clients, suppliers, and communities – to foster collaboration and innovation.

Bidvest's operating presence continues to expand

Our strategy

The Group's strategic ambition is one of scale and growth, grounded in diversification and continually pursuing sustainability. This is enabled by a strong balance sheet, exercising financial discipline through considered capital allocation, fostering innovation and pursuing organic and acquisitive growth opportunities in our identified areas of focus.

Our strategy over the last 37 years has remained true to our diversified offering. We focus on providing the often overlooked, essential components of everyday life that respond to the needs of a diverse society.

We support our entrepreneurial management teams across all our businesses to be catalysts for value creation

We further empower management to offer strong value propositions, focus on cash generation and returns whilst contributing to an efficient and sustainable socio-economic environment.

Innovation and an environment in which employees thrive is at the heart of everything we do, and drives our advancement across industries and geographies

We continue to encourage a performance-driven culture with clearly defined performance metrics to define success. Executive rewards are based on performance against specific metrics derived from these. We are committed to matching our financial results with an equally solid non-financial performance.

Diversity, in all aspects, is an invaluable asset that is a key enabler for consistent and sustainable outperformance

The notion of stakeholder capitalism and sustainable enterprise value creation resonates in our daily actions.

Operational focus

We continually seek to maximise our portfolio by broadening our offering, expanding internationally in niche hygiene and facilities management services as well as plumbing-related wholesaling. We target a blend of defensive, cyclical and growth assets. Capital is invested in key areas, to develop relevant market players of scale.

- Organic growth considerations
 - Extract value in fragmented markets
 - Expand service and product offering
 - Agile pivot into growth sectors
- Acquisitive growth considerations
 - Selected international niche sectors of hygiene services, facilities management and plumbing products
 - Bolt-on acquisitions
 - Capital investment in long-dated assets

Making a difference

Reflecting on the impact made over the past five years

The impact of climate change and social inequality has become even more evident, highlighting the need for common cause, understanding and purpose. We focus on providing the often overlooked, essential components of everyday life that respond to the needs of a diverse society. Getting this right does not happen by chance.

An integrated approach that aligns the Group's strategic ambitions of building scale, driving innovation and real growth with its commitment to driving deliberate, inclusive and sustainable socio-economic prosperity in its home countries is key to delivering the Group's purpose and vision. This is particularly important given the current economic, political and social transitions. The Group's environmental, social and governance Framework (the Framework), linked strategic and sustainability ambitions, focused on the areas in which the Group could create social value and mutual benefit for its societies and those who rely on and support Bidvest, with specific targets and metrics to 2025 to measure progress against. These also embodied SDG-aligned strategies, and critically important, these targets integrated into the incentive scorecards across the Group, cascading from the CEO all the way down to operational teams.

As we close out this maiden iteration of the Framework, we reflect on the pleasing progress made over the past five years. We proudly share the impact made on select initiatives throughout this report.

The environmental footprint targets of a 20% reduction were significantly exceeded. Cybersecurity risk management evolved to cover a much wider ambit and basic IT hygiene controls scored very favourably against the global benchmark. The Bidvest employee base is more diverse and inclusive, particularly in senior leadership, but more work is needed to reflect country demographics.

The reduction in workplace injuries improved beyond target. Regrettably, workplace fatalities occur given the nature, in particular, of security services in SA despite ongoing interventions. An employee wellness programme, covering all SA employees and their dependants, was rolled out and a multi-year project to roll out medical insurance for the lowest earning employees has gained good traction. Among other investments to promote broader economic participation, we made concerted efforts to bring about significant changes to procurement practices. The target of redirecting 90% of local procurement to broad-based black economic empowerment (B-BBEE) compliant suppliers was almost reached. The implementation of technology driven solutions is progressing well as we strive to efficiently aggregate consistent, complete and accurate environmental and remuneration data.

Leadership: Board

The Board and its six sub-committees, together with six divisional boards and Audit committees, chaired by independent non-executives, provide robust oversight. Combined assurance receives deliberate and focused attention at Bidvest. Each Board committee is chaired by an independent non-executive director with delegated authority from the Board.

Diversity, in its broadest sense, is the hallmark of the Bidvest Board, something we are very proud of. The Group has set targets for gender and race representation at all levels of the organisation, as embedded in the Sustainability Framework.

Leadership: Exco

The Group Exco consists of 11 members, including the Group executive directors and functional executives covering strategy, finance, investor relations, sustainability, governance and business development, as well as the six divisional chief executive officers.

The Group believes that its decentralised governance structure supported by experienced management, many of whom are specialists in particular sectors or industries, and lead the day-to-day operations of the businesses, positions the Group well for the continued focus and execution of its key strategic initiatives. As a result, most of the members of the Group's senior management team (whether focused on individual businesses, divisions or the Group as a whole) are heavily rooted, not just in the relevant industry or industries from decades of prior experience, but also in the Group's journey to the diversified business that it is today.
